LINES WRITTEN IN EARLY SPRING

I HEARD a thousand blended notes
While in a grove I sat reclined,
In that sweet mood when pleasant thoughts
Bring sad thoughts to the mind.

To her fair works did Nature link
The human soul that through me ran;
And much it grieved my heart to think
What man has made of this clay.

Through primroses
The periwinkle
And 't is my faith
Enjoys the air

The birds around

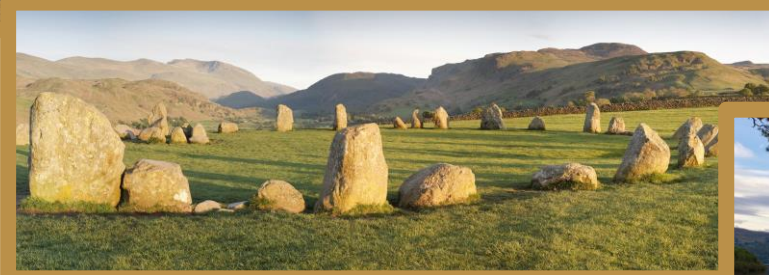

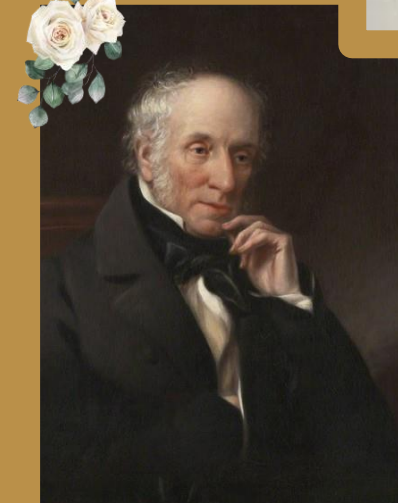

The birds around

of pleasure.

spread out their fan
zy air;
o all I can,
easure there.

aven be sent,
's holy plan,
o lament
ade of man?

The gateway to the lakes

You'll start your day at the Elizabethan family home and garden, Levens Hall. Enjoy the historic house before you spend some time exploring the grounds, including the world's oldest topiary garden.

There is something rather magical about wandering about these gardens, seeing the team of gardeners hard at work. Then enjoy a lunch at Levens Kitchen, where much of the produce comes from the estate.

You'll then depart to the idyllic Grasmere, where you can explore the lakeland village, visit the grave of William Wordsworth or the historic St Oswald's Church.

The next stop will be the beautiful Rydal Mount, where you can spend a tranquil afternoon walking about the gardens, admiring the stunning views out onto Rydal Water. Enjoy tea and cake in the garden savouring the peace of the Wordsworth's family home.
